PIHC TREATS CAMERON MEYER

Cameron Meyer is for most people in the world of cycling right up there with the greatest of swimmers, golf professionals and heads of state. Cameron Meyer is the current World Cyclist Champion who is back in Perth for a few months after a eventful year with Team Garmin Slipstream having completed notable pro tours such as the Giro de Italia. Ian Wee and his clinical team at PIHC are currently involved in assisting Cameron in his performance enhancement and rehabilitation requirements to maintain his peak level of conditioning and performance in readiness for his defense of his title in 2010 and beyond.

Cameron is a true blue Aussie gentleman previously from Perth who is an asset to our nation and in the world of cycling. For more information on Cameron Meyer check out his website at: www.cameronandtravismeyer.com.au or Garmin Slipstream one which is www.slipstreamsports.com
